Dear Sir/Madam:

I, _____ am writing to request permission to reproduce the image(s) listed below:

These images will accompany an essay, written by me, that will appear in a forthcoming issue of the journal, Small Axe: A Caribbean Journal of Criticism. Small Axe is published three times a year by Duke University Press, distributed widely to individual subscribers, libraries, and other educational institutions. I request non-exclusive worldwide rights in all languages for both print and electronic editions of the journal. If you are not the copyright holder, or if additional permission is needed from another source, please so indicate in writing below and return this form to my attention.

The image will appear in the password-protected electronic edition at 72 dpi with the same credit and caption information as in the print version, and online subscribers will view the picture only within the context of the scholarly article. Back issues of the online journal are archived, and thus are available indefinitely for use by researchers.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

The above request is hereby approved on the understanding that full credit will be given to your institution. Please indicate below any preference on how the credit should read.
